

2025 - 2026 Higher Education Grant

Ayukii (Hello) Karuk College Student,

Attached is a scholarship application for the 2025 - 2026 academic year. The estimated scholarship amount of $2,000.00 for the entire school year is yet to be officially determined by the Karuk Education Committee. The number of student applications received will affect award amounts. Please use the Karuk Education webpage for scholarship application links and further information at www.kaukeducation.com. Please try your best to turn all your completed application materials in 2 weeks or more before the due date to ensure that you are eligible and it is received on time.

Additionally, we are offering a one-time award of $500.00 for part-time students this year. Students must have a minimum of 6 units to be eligible for this scholarship. The number of units will determine the award amount. Students are only eligible for one award.

THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS IS JULY 28, 2025.

The Karuk Tribe is very proud of your initiative to succeed through higher education. Your effort to attain a college degree will not only provide you opportunities for higher-paying jobs and increase your interpersonal skills and knowledge, but will also increase tribal and community capacity for generations to come. We appreciate your courage, respect your ambition, and look forward to your unique contribution to the future of our tribe.

Other Educational Opportunities:

The Karuk Tribe Housing Authority (KTHA) Student Rent Voucher (SRV) Program provides rental assistance to income-eligible, Enrolled Karuk Tribal Members (regardless of location) and Karuk Descendants (who reside in Siskiyou or Humboldt County at the time of application) who are attending college or vocational school full-time (12 units). For more information on this program, contact Samantha White at the Karuk Tribal Housing Authority, (800) 250-5811 or (530) 493-1414 extension 3108.

Students interested in assistance to continue their education through an Adult Vocational School should contact Dion Wood, 477 Director, at (530) 493-1600 extension 2030, for more information about the highly limited financial assistance that may be available to you.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.
